OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

BUTTER.—Notwithstanding the apparent quiet in our market to-day, we find that a better business was carried on than last week showed, and at better prices. The number of tubs of butter was 1,198, and prices ranged all the way from 25 to 35 cents. As there was not much brought in last week, and as the extreme hot weather has had some effect upon some butter, the variation in prices is easily accounted for; good butter brought an exceptionally good price, and poor butter went at its proper worth also. The market might properly be quoted as one or two cents higher than last week.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—The lodge of Good Templars in St. Albans seems to be in a flourishing condition, having 317 members on its rolls, up to date. A degree meeting was held at the lodge room last evening.

ENGLISH LODGE.—Members of the craft will be interested in knowing that the charter for the above named lodge has been received, and to-morrow the ceremony of institution of the lodge, and installation of its officers, will be conducted at the lodge rooms. The Worshipful Grand Master, Dr. Hall, of Swanton, or the Worshipful Grand Junior Warden, Park Davis, of St. Albans, will probably conduct the ceremonies.

THE Whitehall Times suggests that the Hon. Timothy Hoyle, of Champlain, ought to receive the Democratic nomination of Lieut. Governor of New York.

The same paper asks: "Is Grant a drunkard?" No. Ask us some more hard questions.

Is Blair a Good Templar?

INCREASE.—At the evening service at the M. E. Church on Sunday last, two adults were baptised, and three were received into the church on probation. During the spring and summer about 15 persons have been added to this church, showing that the efforts of its pastor are constant and persistent.

ENLARGED.—The Rutland Independent, a lively and readable paper, has been enlarged, and changed to the quarto form. Without being able to say that we like the form, for a country paper, we may say that the Independent is a good family weekly, and worthy the encouraging patronage it evidently receives.

TAX.—The Whitehall Times don't like the tax on brimstone. It says: "The tax of one cent a box on matches last year netted to the government a revenue of $1,500,000. When you get up in the night and strike a match on the wall, listen to the noise it makes. If it doesn't say 'tax' then we'll treat."

PORTLAND, Me., proposes to hold a great International Commercial Convention on the 4th of August. All sections of the country will be represented, and the general trading interests of North America will undergo discussion.

Some of the radical journals are attempting to attack Gen. Blair on account of his alleged lavish personal habits. The Hartford Post, for instance, says, during last year's campaign his bill at a hotel in that town was: "Two days' board, $10; liquors and whiskey, $85; total, $95." If the Post means by this to intimate that Gen. Blair drank the whiskey, we pronounce it a gross slander, for he is a strict temperance man. If he had whiskey at all, it must have been for medicinal purposes alone.—Exchange.

The Reds are making jackasses of themselves by howling over the presence of Forrest, Wade Hampton, and other Rebel soldiers in the Democratic Convention. As if that were not the very thing the American people have been longing for ever since Lee laid down his arms at Appomattox Court House and Grant declared the loyalty of the South genuine and complete.

Do these noodles suppose the American people want a Union restored with the Southern leaders left out?—Plattsburgh Republican.

Leaving out the hard words, which don't convince the understanding, the above is a very sensible and well-put question.

THE HARVEST.—Concerning the crops in Connecticut the Boston Journal says:

"The farmers are busy gathering their rye and grass crops. The rye is uncommonly good in head and straw, and the grass of unexampled height and thickness. There will scarcely be barn room sufficient for the hay crop. Corn is coming on at a great pace and never looked better. Potatoes indicate a large yield, and tobacco is doing splendidly. The apple crop will not be large, but generally speaking according to the local press, the 'land of steady habits' will have a merry harvest season next fall."

A gentleman living in Plymouth, Mass., who has traveled recently all through Canada, and whose business connections bring him in contact with drovers from all parts of the West, informs us that from all he has seen and heard he concludes the harvest of the present year will be the most abundant of any in a long series of years. Thereports in papers from various parts of the country tend to confirm his judgment; and again we hope to see the land "teeming with plenty," and bread within the easy reach of all.

THE Rutland Herald drops down upon the Burlington Free Press savagely for advising that some one, not Mr. Woodbridge, should be nominated for Congress in the 1st District. The Herald also comes out for the first time in favor of Mr. Woodbridge for re-nomination. It thinks there is a cat in the Free Press meal; and we think there is one in the Herald's. With Mr. Woodbridge renominated there would be new chances two years hence, of course.

WARNING TO TOBACCO USERS.—It is said that the recent hot weather diminished very much the use of tobacco, temporarily, and increased the call for cooling drinks. It is a singular fact that Dives did not ask for a cigar, but for water, also.

HAYING.—In an article on haying, in the Ledger, H. W. Beecher says:

A man can now manage a hundred acres of grass easier than he formerly could twenty. The only thing that remains to be made easy is pitching on and off the load. It is true that horse-forks have been invented, but I have never seen any that did their work well; and in my barn, at any rate, the old work of pitching and mowing remains; and if you wish to know what fun is, get on to the mow, under the slate roof of my barn, on a hot day, and let Tom pitch off hay as he will if I give him the wink. You will have to stomp lively, and even then, you will often be seen emerging from heaps of hay thrown over you, like a rat from a bunch of oakum. And then it is so pleasant, when a man is all-a-sweat to have his shirt filled with hay seed, each particular particle of which makes believe that it is a flea, and wiggles and tickles upon each square inch of your skin, until you are half desperate.

It is the second of July, and my grass is all cut, and the last load is rolling in to the barn while I write. How sweet it smells! How jolly the children are that have mounted on the top of the load; and their little scarlet jackets peep out from their nest while Tim stands guard and nurse. A child that has not ridden up from the meadow to the barn on a load of hay has yet to learn one of the luxuries of exultant childhood!—What care they for jolts, when the whole load is a vast multiplex spring? The more the wagon jounces the better they like it! Then come the bars leading into the lane with maple trees on each side. The limbs reach over, and the green leaves kiss the children over and over again. So would I if I were a green leaf, and not consider myself so green after all! And so the load slowly rolls up the hill. There is no such thing as momentum in an ox. He is always at a dead pull and at the very hardest. But the children like it! The slower, the longer is the ride. Let them take all the comfort they can. By and by they will be grown, and own fine carriages, and roll in style through the streets. But there is many a fair face that rides in a silk-lined coach, with a sad heart, and would go back if she could, oh how gladly, to her joyous ride on a load of hay!

BENNINGTON COUNTY.—At the Republican County Convention of Bennington, held at Arlington on Thursday, Hon. E. B. Burton, presiding, and Wm. H. Cook, Secretary, the following nominations were made:

For Senators, Hon. Harmon Canfield, of Arlington, and Dr. Martin J. Love, of Bennington. For Assistant Judges, Hiram Cole, E. M. Aylesworth. For State's Attorney, Rodney Howard. For Sheriff, Leander Powers. For High Bailiff, James M. McCall. For Judges of Probate, John W. Vail, for the District of Bennington, Elias B. Burton, for the District of Manchester, Loveland Munson, Wm. H. Cook and H. S. Hard were elected County Committee for the year ensuing.

All the above are sound on the railroad question.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.—In a message to the Senate on Saturday President Johnson suggested certain amendments to the Constitution of the United States, which appeared to him to require correction. The first was the clause for the election of President and Vice-President through the intervention of Electors of the several States, instead of directly by the people. The dangers of a defeat of the popular choice would be greatly increased, he argued, if the House of Representatives should undertake arbitrarily to reject the vote of a State on the ground that it had not complied with some condition. He therefore felt called upon to revive and urge the recommendations made by President Jackson on that subject and to suggest a form of amendment to the Constitution. He also suggested a change in the provision for filling a vacancy in the Presidency, taking the ground that an officer of the Executive Department should be designated rather than an officer of the Legislative or Judicial Department. He suggested that the duties of the Presidency would devolve more properly on the head of one of the Executive Departments. He also recommended a change in the mode of election of United States Senators—that they should be elected by the people instead of by the Legislatures of the several States. Also that the term of the Judges should be limited to a number of years. He suggested that these subjects should receive the attention of Congress and be submitted to the people.

THIRD ANNUAL TOUR
—OF THIS—
GREAT METROPOLITAN INSTITUTION

Permanently established during the greater portion of the year in a splendid Iron Edifice in the City of New York, which is well known throughout the country as the

Leading Circus of America

And which, the present season, with its

NEW AND MAGNIFICENT FEATURES,

Never before presented in America, will be enabled to offer entertainments of marked originality and exciting interest, far surpassing anything hitherto witnessed on this side of the Atlantic. The public appreciation of the performances given by the New York Circus, not only in the City of New York, but also during its former Summer Excursions, has stimulated the management to renewed exertions, and it is confidently asserted as beyond the power of contradiction, not only that the performance of the Troupe during its present tour will be found superior to any ever given in this Country,

But that the company is in all respects

THE BEST IN THE WORLD!

There being no Equestrian establishment in all Europe comprising so many first-class artists, or so many entirely novel and strikingly effective specialties as this. First season in America of the CAROLINE ROLLAND, the Phenomenal Equestrienne, who surpasses the most daring feats accomplished by other lady riders on a pad, upon a horse without saddle or bridle! This extraordinary artist was engaged in England at enormous expense by an agent sent thither for the purpose of securing the best lady rider in Europe, and only arrived in this country in April. Her astounding performance upon a Bare-Back Steed, throw into the shade all previous displays of female Equestrianism seen in the United States and cannot be paralleled in any exhibition in Europe or America. Included in the brilliant array of

World Renowned Artists

Attached to the New York Circus will be found the names of Robert Stickney, the Great American Bare-Back Rider; the Conrad Brothers, Champion Gymnasts of the World; William Dutton, the intrepid Somerset Rider, with his infant son, Arthur; the Rummels Family, who have no equals in any country in the Classic School of Gymnastics; El Nino Eddie, the Boy Wonder, who although a mere child, surpasses Blondin in difficult feats upon the Tight Rope. Herbert B. Williams, the greatest of English Clowns, engaged in London expressly for the present traveling season, together with the greatest force of Daring Bare-Back Riders, Accomplished Acrobats, Classic Gymnasts, Comical Clowns, Slack Rope Vaulters, Posture Masters, Equilibrists, Voltigeurs, Tumblers and Fantomists, Ever brought together in this country, involving a greater expenditure for Salaries than is incurred by any four traveling companies, and embracing more first class Artists than can be found in any Circus in the World. First season in America of Conrad's TROUPE OF PERFORMING DOGS!

From London and Paris. The largest and best stud of beautiful and highly trained

PERFORMING HORSES AND PONIES

And the most brilliant wardrobe, trappings and appointments to be found in Europe or America.

The Programme of performances arranged for the present season will be distinguished by novelty, variety and sterling merit, including many entirely new acts, never before given in this country, with others that are original with and peculiar to the New York Circus, and can be witnessed in no other establishments all the vast resources of this magnificently appointed establishment will be called into requisition at every entertainment to furnish a display of Dashing Horsemanship and Classic Olympic Games!

Which for Novelty, Variety Elegance and exciting interest will be found infinitely superior to anything of the kind hitherto witnessed in America.

The Entire Mammoth Troupe

From the New York circus, in Fourteenth Street, New York, will appear at every performance.

Prof. Charles Boswood's Opera Band,

From New York, accompanies the Troupe.

This company travels entirely by railroad, on special trains chartered for the purpose, and consequently the performers and horses come into the arena fresh and active, instead of being jaded and worn down by wearisome night travel over rough roads.
